Editorials are chosen and written by the Ubyssy staff. They are the expressed opinion of the staff, and do not necessarily reflect the views of The Ubyssy Publications Society or the University of British Columbia. All editorial content appearing in The Ubyssy is the property of The Ubyssy Publications Society. Stories, opinions, photographs and artwork contained herein cannot be reproduced without the expressed, written permission of The Ubyssy Publications Society.

The Ubyssy is a founding member of Canadian University Press (CUP) and adheres to CUP's guiding principles.

Letters to the editor must be under 300 words. Please include your phone number, student number and signature (not for publication) as well as your year and faculty with all submissions. ID will be checked when submissions are dropped off at the editorial office of The Ubyssy; otherwise verification will be done by phone. "Perspectives" are opinion pieces over 300 words but under 750 words and are run according to space. "Freestyles" are opinion pieces written by Ubyssy staff members. Priority will be given to letters and perspectives over freestyles unless the latter is time sensitive. Opinion pieces will not be run until the identity of the writer has been verified. The Ubyssy reserves the right to edit submissions for length and clarity. All letters must be received by 12 noon the day before intended publication. Letters received after this point will be published in the following issue unless there is an urgent time restriction or other matter deemed relevant by the Ubyssy staff.

Gerald Deo and Kate Barbaria decided to go to Vancouver Pride in August. Adam Leggett, Paul Buccì, Kalyeena Markoff, and Kathy Yan Li were drinking beers in the crisp morning sun and saw Krystin Bain and Brian Platt heading their way. The whole group decided (in a rather inebriated state) to trek down to the parade route. As the queens marched by, they saw their friends Fernanda Fukamati, Molly D., Kellan Higgins and Trevor Melanson dressed to the nines. Following them in a hot pink fire truck were dancing boys and Marie-Helene Westgate, Olivia Fellows, Angela Weddell and Jorge Amigo. After the parade was over, they all walked down to Abdullah Alzareel and Tara Martellaro's apartment for an epic afterparty. While Jon Horn, Keegan Bursaw, Stephanie Dong and Shun Endo yelled for them to shut up, Joe Rayment and Goh Iromoto heard the commotion and asked to be buzzed in. The landlady Monica Tanaca was peeved, but her husband Justin McElroy was more understanding. Alicia Woodside, Alec Young and Cel Rince had to catch the 99 home at midnight. In the end Trevor Record and Stephanie Findlay came out on top.
